

Livonia Tops Dansville Cal-Mum Cagers Next for Mustangs

Dansville High's basketball team will attempt to regain the victory track in a Livingston Conference Division One game at Caledonia-Mumford Friday night.

Coach Jim DeBell's Mustangs dropped a 76-51 decision to undefeated Livonia there Tuesday night. Last Friday, DCHS lost 79-74 in a wild-scoring contest at LeRoy.

At Livonia, the host opened a 20-11 first quarter lead, fronted 37-25 at the half and 53-35 going into the final period. Livonia hit on 21 two-point shots, four three-pointers and converted 22 of 30 foul shots. Dansville swished 21 field goals and was 11 for 15 at the line.

Mike Wamp paced Dansville with 18 points while Dave Hamsher scored 11. Adding to the total were Roy Alford and Ken Heiman, each with six, Bob Mahus with four, Jeff Jaeger, Ken Keppen and Pat Byrnes, each with two.

LeRoy rallied for a 30-point fourth quarter to overcome the Mustangs. Dansville went out in front 19-18 at the quarter and held a 38-34 halftime advantage. Dansville led 53-49 going into the final period when the hosts blistered to nets for 30 points, 14 of them at the foul line.

Dansville had 32 two-point goals, one for three points and made seven of 11 at the foul line. In contrast, LeRoy had 25 two-pointers, four three-pointers and made 17 of 24 shots at the line.

Mahus topped the Dansville scorers with 24 points while Jaeger had 16 and Hamsher 11. Brad West scored nine, Wamp eight and Heiman six.
